

Antje Gerstein

BDA

Antje Gerstein is managing director of the Brussels representation of the Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA) and Permanent Delegate of BDA within BUSINESSEUROPE. Previously, she has supervised international social policy as deputy director of the "European Union and International Affairs" department of BDA and was the delegate of the German employers at the International Labour Conference of the ILO in Geneva. After her studies of geography, regional planning and rural development at the universities of Tübingen and Stuttgart, she graduated with a degree in Geography. Always internationally interested, she held positions at the Carl Duisberg Society, the European Commission and a consulting firm for European funded projects in Cologne and Brussels. She loves sailing and lives with her two children, her dog and her husband in Berlin.

Emily Sims

ILO

Emily Sims is a Senior Specialist in the ILO Programme on Multinational Enterprises and Social Policy and manager of the ILO Helpdesk for Business. She has also been involved in drafting of the labour component of various key CSR instruments, including ISO 26000 and the update of the OECD Guidelines, and has provided technical assistance to a range of industry and multi-stakeholder initiatives. She is the author of numerous articles and co-author of two books: Corporate Success through People and Labour-Management Cooperation in SMEs: Forms and Factors. Her research currently focuses on the potential synergies between public regulation of the workplace and company and industry social responsibility initiatives. Emily is trained at the graduate level in both law and economics (Juris Doctor, Yale Law School; MSc in economics, London School of Economics).

Emmanuel Julien

MEDEF

Emmanuel Julien was born in 1963. He is Deputy-Director of Social Affairs at the French Business Confederation – MEDEF. After law studies, he got a degree in Political Sciences at Paris-based Institute of Political Sciences (IEP) in 1988. His responsibilities cover European and International Social Affairs. He is representing MEDEF in the ILO where he is Member of the Governing Body since 2007, and was Spoke person and Vice-Chair of the Committee on Programme, Budget and Administration from 2008 to 2012. He stands in the International Organisation of Employers (member of the Board), as well as in BUSINESSEUROPE (he was Vice-Chairman of Social affairs committee from 2009 to 2013) and in a number of European and French institutions such as the EU Social Dialogue Committee. His main activities deal with European social dialogue, relations with trade unions, lobbying at the EU level, European employment policy, assistance to companies on European works council, human rights and international companies, and the coordination of international business in the G20. Involved in a number of CSR networks at national and international level, he was BE spoke person in the European multi-stakeholder forum on CSR from 2002 to 2006, chaired BE working group on CSR and wrote many articles on the issue. He will start a new job in the second half of October 2013 as Deputy Director of Enterprise department of the ILO.

Hanni Rosenbaum

BIAC

Hanni Rosenbaum is Senior Policy Manager at the Business and Industry Advisory Committee to the OECD (BIAC), an independent international business association devoted to advising policy makers at OECD on the many diversified issues of globalisation and the world economy. She currently manages BIAC's activities in the areas of investment, corporate responsibility, anti-bribery, corporate governance and environmental policy and is in charge of coordinating business input to discussions related to the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises (MNEs), a comprehensive set of recommendations on responsible business conduct addressed by governments to MNEs operating in or from adhering countries. Prior to joining BIAC, Ms. Rosenbaum worked at the Nürburgring GmbH in Germany, the European Parliament in Brussels/France, and BIR, the global recycling industry association, in Brussels. Ms. Rosenbaum holds advanced degrees in French and English from Cologne University, in applied economic sciences from the Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) in Brussels and in international relations from the Centre for Diplomatic and Strategic Studies in Paris. She has German and French nationalities. She practices karate and enjoys tennis, traveling and languages.

Jorgen Ronnest

Danish Employers' Confederation

Jørgen Rønne holds a master degree in political science and worked for more than ten years in the Danish Ministry of Finance as an economist and an EU-Expert, including three years as financial attaché at the Danish Embassy in Washington D.C After six years as chief economist in Danske Bank he returned in 1989 to the field of European Cooperation as Director for International Affairs in the Confederation of Danish Employers. He has represented the Danish Employers in BUSINESSEUROPE and the European Social Dialogue as well as in ILO, where he has been a member of the Governing Body since 2010. He has been acting director for social affairs of BUSINESSEUROPE 2007-2008 in parallel with his responsibilities as director for international affairs in the Confederation of Danish Employers.

Lene Wendland

OHCHR

Lene Wendland is head of the Business and Human Rights Team in the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) for the past decade. She worked closely with the former UN Special Representative on business and human rights, Professor John Ruggie, in the development of the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. She currently supervises the support to the UN Working Group on business and human rights and leads OHCHR's work to advance the implementation of the Guiding Principles.

Matthias Thorns

IOE

Matthias Thorns received his PHD from European Integration- European Studies, University of Hannover after getting his master from History and Philosophy, University of Hannover and the University of Bristol. He worked respectively as adviser for Social Affairs, BUSINESSEUROPE in Brussels; as Adviser for European and International Affairs in Confederation of German Employers (BDA); and as the deputy director European and International Affairs, Confederation of German Employers (BDA) in Berlin. He is currently working as Senior Adviser in the International Organisation of Employers (IOE) in Geneva.

Aykan Gülten

Coca Cola İçecek

Aykan Gülten has a Management Engineering degree from Istanbul Technical University. He started his career in PriceWaterhouse Coopers in Assurance and Business Advisory Services in 2000. He worked at Nike Turkey and Nike European Offices for 7 years as a Corporate Responsibility Manager. As a part of Sustainable Business team at Nike, he managed recycling and climate change related initiatives, supply chain compliance program as well as multi-sector partnerships for social development. Aykan

Gülten started working for Coca-Cola İçecek in 2009 and assumed Corporate Affairs Manager role for Turkey and International markets leading stakeholder engagement, media relations, government affairs and sustainability initiatives.

Aylin Gezgüç

Koç Holding

Aylin Gezguc received her MBA degree from University of California at Berkeley after graduation from Business Administration Department, Faculty of Political Science, Ankara University. She started her career as the expert in the Office of Special Projects in Republic of Turkey Prime Ministry Undersecretariat of Treasury, General Directorate of Foreign Economic Relations and worked in in the projects of municipal infrastructure, build-operate-transfer and defense sector. She has worked as the Chief of the Department of Relations with IMF and then as the Head of Department of Multilateral Economic Relations in the same institutions between the years of 2000 and 2005. She started to work for Koç Holding in 2007, as the Coordinator of External Relations and Corporate Social Responsibility; and she has been working on project design and management such as content developments, transfer to field, PR and media campaigns for projects such as ' For My Country ', 'Vocational Schools: A National Issue'. Aylin Gezgüç acts as the coach for Koc Holding CSR Reporting process, following up the UN Global Compact and supporting the sustainability activities of Koc Holding companies. She is currently the Board Member of TEMA and UN Global Compact Local Network.

Ceyhun Göcenoğlu

IBM

Ceyhun Göcenoğlu aims to develop sustainable cooperation among institutions by his tasks both in non-governmental organizations and private sector. He has worked in British Council, Vodafone and Turk Telekom to develop inter-sectoral dynamics in the areas of institutional and industrial relations. He received his master's degree in Corporate Governance and Ethics from Birkbeck College, University of London with the British Government grant. He is presently a PhD student of the Public Relations department in the Faculty of Communication, Marmara University. Ceyhun Göcenoğlu, who is a board member of Corporate Social Responsibility Association of Turkey, is currently working as the manager of Corporate Social Responsibility Programs at IBM Turk.

Dori Kiss Kalafat

Tekfen Holding

Dori Kiss Kalafat, who was born in 1968 in Budapest, graduated from the Department of Western Languages and Literature, Boğaziçi University in 1990. Between the years of 1992-1996 she started to work on advertising in the Customer Relations of Young&Rubicam Advertisement. Kiss Kalafat has worked as Public Relations Manager in Mudo between 1996-1997 and then taken position as the Marketing Manager in Gilan Jewellery between 1997-1998. Then, between the years of 1998-2002 she was responsible for Customer Relations of the Tayfa Advertisement Agency of which she is a founding partner. Kiss Kalafat who is assigned to develop Corporate Communication department within the company, has been working in Tekfen Holding as Corporate Communications Coordinator since 2003 and she has been a member of the Tekfen Foundation Board of Directors since 2008. Kiss Kalafat, who is also giving lessons on the field of vocational as part time academican in Bogazici University, can speak the languages of Hungarian, French and English. She is married and has a son named Almos.

Erdem Kolcuoğlu

Kiymet-i Harbiye

Erdem Kolcuoğlu has received his master degree in International Development Law and Political Sciences at Université de Nice Sophia Antipolis France; after getting his BA degree in Political Sciences at Marmara University Turkey. Starting his professional career in social investment project design, later he became one of the analysts conducting, globally recognized research, the AccountAbility Rating in Turkey. Providing services as a consultant and trainer on corporate responsibility and sustainability for various long-established organizations in Turkey since 2007, Erdem Kolcuoğlu has become one of the founding partners of Kiymet-i Harbiye Management Consultancy in 2009. Erdem is currently performing as Vice-chairperson of Kiymet-i Harbiye, executive editor of KurumsalSürdürülebilirlik.com, observer member of UN Global Compact Turkey's Executive Board and representative in Global Reporting Initiatives Local Data Partners Network.

Serdar Dinler

CSR Association of Turkey

Serdar Dinler has worked in the non-profit organizations in his career after completing his education in Ankara. He worked as the Director of Scholarship and Training Programs in British Council. Serdar Dinler, who has taken active role for bringing many new concepts to Turkey; implementation and dissemination of those concepts by founding associations, worked for the foundation of more than 25 associations and took part in many national and international projects. He has been the Head of Corporate Social Responsibility Association of Turkey as the founding chairman. In addition, he was elected as the Board Member of European Association of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR Europe) - based on Brussels- for three years.

Şükran Çağlayan Mumcu

BP

Şükran Çağlayan Mumcu received her bachelor degree from Political Science and Public Administration, Middle East Technical University. She has over 13 years' experience in private business sector (BP) in Turkey. She started her career as Media Analyst in Government and Public Affairs Department in BP Turkey; then she became SIA Advisor and External Relations Coordinator of BTC Project for BP. She continued to work as Social/CIP Coordinator of BTC Project and she got the positions respectively in Management of Community Investment Programme/Socio-economic issues in BTC Project and Management of Regional Development Programme in BP-Turkey. Şükran Çağlayan Mumcu worked for the BTC Pipeline Project, which is called as the "project of the century", which foreseen carrying the crude oil from the Caspian Sea Region to world markets through Azerbaijan, Georgia and Turkey ; and she took active role in the process of identification and management of social impacts and management of additional investment programmes within the scope of BTC's social responsibility policies. She is currently working as the Corporate Social Responsibility Manager in BP Turkey.

Mustafa Levent İlğün

Mustafa Levent İlğün graduated from Faculty of Economy, Istanbul University. He has been working in the management position respectively in Coca- Cola, Pirelli and Anadolu Efes for many years. Mustafa Levent İlğün, who generally focused on the marketing communication in his career, continues to work for increasing the awareness for CSR concept in the teams he is engaged as well as the business world through recent years.